Hello All! Welcome to the Spring 2017 Semester!
We hope that you are all enjoying the last of the amazing Utah snow and gearing up for a great spring and summer!

This year's high snowfall totals should make for a beautiful wildflower season, so make sure to take some time for self-care and go on a hike to explore the beautiful mountains nearby!

Some hearty congratulations are in order for our four matched internship applicants!

Here's where they are headed:

Summer Hickam: Washington State University

Melissa Shreve: Southern Arizona Veterans Affairs Healthcare

Derek Smith: VA Eastern Kansas Healthcare System

Alberto Varela: Utah State University

Program Directors Corner

I hope you all are having an enjoyable and productive spring term! The snow is starting to melt and the sun is warming things up! I've been happy to re-connect with everyone after my parental leave during fall term. A shout-out to our 4 internship applicants who recently matched (100%!!) – way to go!! Thanks to all of you who made our doctoral applicant interview day in February a great success!! Finally, an early congrats to those of you who will be graduating in spring or summer. Best, Jason

Program Events and Opportunities

Spotlight Speaker Series: The Sword in Her Hands: Louisiana's Free Women of Color and their Sexual Negotiation for Freedom, March 30th, 2017, 12pm, SAEC 1151A/B

In celebration of Women's History Month, the University of Utah Black Faculty and Staff Association welcomes Dr. Noël Mellick-Voltz, a new Assistant Professor in the Department of History, as our Spotlight Lecture Series speaker. Her presentation: The Sword in Her Hands: Antebellum Louisiana's Free Women of Color and their Sexual Negotiation for Freedom, discusses how free women of color used sex across the color-line as a tool of negotiation as they made strategic claims to their freedom.

Don't forget about sleep: Incorporating assessment and treatment of sleep into busy practices April 10th, 2017, Lunchtime webinar presented by Dr. Katherine Fortenberry Event sponsored by the Utah Psychological Association

Please join us and our dedicated clinical supervisors at the Supervision Recognition Event. The event will feature guest speaker Clifford Rosky, JD, Professor at the University of Utah SJ Quinney College of Law who will be speaking on: Teaching Homosexuality? The Campaign to Eliminate Anti-Gay Curriculum Laws

Graduation

Friday, May 5th, 2017, 12 Noon to 1:30 PM, Kingsbury Hall

The College of Education Graduation Ceremony (Convocation) is a shorter, more intimate ceremony than the University-wide ceremony (Commencement). There is a procession in your gowns, a very short program, and then you are able to walk across the stage to receive your diploma. If you are receiving your doctorate, you will be "hooded" as your name is called and your dissertation title is read. Kingsbury Hall is a small enough venue in which your family can see you do this – so be sure to invite them! All of the faculty will be on stage to congratulate you as well.

Student Resources

On Campus

The Graduate Writing Center is available for graduate students looking for help writing papers or dissertations and they have offices in the Marriot Library as well as in the Business School Building. Check out their website for more information and to schedule an appointment.
